Top 10 Tips for Clubs: to Create Inclusion for Children with Autism

1. Make a commitment to Autism awareness - display our Autism in Cricket poster at your club.

2. Follow us on Facebook for ongoing updates that you can share on your club social media pages to increase awareness.

3. Make sure you check all your registrations preseason and identify children who have Autism.

4. Develop a process that ensures all coaches and managers contact the parents of children who do have Autism to ask the parents what they need to know to prepare for a successful first day.

5. Set up a positive open relationship with the parents so they can guide the club on what support their son or daughter needs.

6. Support coaches to feel confident throughout the season and allow for flexibility in the training/game environment.

7. Join the team; email us on autismincricket@autism.org.au and we can help you, by providing training and ongoing support to your coaches and managers.

8. Download our resources from our website www.autismincricket.com.au and watch our great simple videos for coaches, parents and clubs.

9. Create roles in your club for kids with Autism who want to be part of your club but are not yet interested in playing the game.
